

Extension for Tribal agencies and Tribal Child Care Programs for the CSPP and CCTR RFA

Attention: Tribal agencies, Tribal Child Care Programs, California School Districts, County Office of Education Superintendents and agencies of early learning and care programs interested in applying for California State Preschool Program or General Child Care and Development Program funding

Specific to Tribal agencies and Tribal Child Care Programs

The CDE, ELCD will be extending the due date to Wednesday, January 2, 2019, for the fiscal year (FY) 2018–19 California State Preschool Program (CSPP) and General Child Care and Development Program (CCTR) Request for Applications (RFA) for Tribal agencies and Tribal Programs.

Located on page 9 of 35 on the program overview and instructions, this section provides information regarding program funding eligibility. The applicant agency must be:

- Licensed in accordance with 22 CCR, Community Care Licensing; or
- Eligible for licensing in accordance with 22 CCR, Community Care Licensing, Division 12; or
- Appropriately exempt from licensing requirements

Note: This extension is only for those Tribal agencies or Tribal Child Care Programs who are appropriately exempt from licensing compliance with California Code of Regulations Title 22. If your Tribal agency or Tribal Child Care Program is interested in applying for either of these funding opportunities and needs an extension, please reach out to Margo Hunkins either by email (mhunkins@cde.ca.gov) or phone (916-323-1305) to inform her of your extension request. The ELCD must receive your request in order to grant your agency an extension.
