The Resource Connection of Amador and Calaveras

The Resource Connection's mission is to engage families, empower communities, and enrich the lives of the residents of Amador and Calaveras counties.

The Resource Connection is committed to client satisfaction with an emphasis on being proactive is our primary priority. Along with this commitment it is our goal to give every client the individual attention and personalized service with expertise and knowledge. We strive to provide our families with the highest quality service in the industry.

The Resource Connection, formerly Human Resources Council (HRC), is a 32-year-old Amador and Calaveras based nonprofit organization providing services and programs in three critical areas: children and families, nutrition, and prevention and intervention. The Resource Connection is governed by a volunteer board of directors and staffed by 150 employees at 16 sites throughout the two counties.

Programs include:

- WIC
The Resource Connection's Women Infants and Children (WIC) program is here to help income eligible pregnant women and mothers of infants and toddlers (birth to 5) throughout Amador and Calaveras counties.
- Intervention & Prevention
The Resource Connection Calaveras Crisis Center provides a number of services to victims of Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault.
- Food Bank
Clients who meet income guidelines receive an emergency supply of food once every thirty days so that they can avoid skipping meals or avoid cutting back on the amount of food they eat.
- Early Childhood Programs
Head Start/Early Head Start provides comprehensive early education programs for children from birth to age five in Calaveras County.
- Child Care Resources and Referrals
Child care resources and assistance for parents, child care providers and the early childhood education community.
